WELCOME LETTER

Dear Colleagues,

We are delighted to greet you with great enthusiasm as we prepare to host the 2nd International Congress on Early Intervention and Rehabilitation (ICER2025), following the remarkable success of the first congress held in 2018. Due to the global pandemic and the unfortunate earthquakes we have experienced, we had to take a break. However, we are returning stronger than ever to take another significant step in this field. With the motto “Share Your Knowledge, Demonstrate Your Skills”, we are pleased to invite all our colleagues to join us at this distinguished event, which will take place between November 9–12, 2025, in Xanadu Resort Hotel, Belek, Antalya, Türkiye.

Early intervention is a crucial process that shapes children’s developmental journeys and requires a multidisciplinary approach. In today’s world, where science and technology are advancing rapidly and significant transformations are occurring in all aspects of healthcare, taking the proper steps at an early stage brings a long-lasting and positive impact on children’s and their families’ lives. Our congress aims to bring together the latest scientific research, practical techniques, and clinical success stories in the field of early intervention.

During the congress, we will discuss successful multidisciplinary approaches that integrate physiotherapy and rehabilitation, occupational therapy, speech and language therapy, psychological support, educational strategies, and social services, with a special focus on infant intervention. These early interventions not only contribute to healthy child development but also present a valuable opportunity to raise more assertive and independent individuals in society.

The advancements in medicine, technological innovations, and the power of early diagnosis become even more impactful through collaboration in this field. At this congress, we will come together on both national and international platforms to develop joint solutions for advancing early intervention and rehabilitation processes. We aspire to create a dynamic environment where experiences will be shared, new collaborations will be established, and scientific and social interactions will flourish.

Early intervention and rehabilitation are not just medical approaches but also a social responsibility—a journey we can only accomplish together. Your valuable contributions will shape the success of this congress, enrich the discussions, and bring hope for the future.

We eagerly look forward to welcoming you to Antalya for this significant gathering, where we will exchange the latest developments in early intervention and rehabilitation, broaden our perspectives, establish new collaborations, and share knowledge.

With our best regards,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee,

Prof. Dr. Bülent ELBASAN

Prof. Dr. Akmer MUTLU

ABOUT ANTALYA

Antalya, located on the stunning Mediterranean coast of Türkiye, is a vibrant city known as the “Turkish Riviera.” It is celebrated for its beautiful beaches, crystal-clear waters, and a perfect blend of historical charm and modern attractions. The city welcomes millions of visitors annually with its warm climate, lively atmosphere, and unique cultural heritage.

It is typical of Türkiye, a thriving modern city, with a historic heart in the center of Kaleiçi within the old city walls. This area has seen something of a renaissance in recent years, with many of the wooden Ottoman mansions being restored and turned into boutique hotels. No cars are allowed in the narrow streets of the old town so it is a good place to soak up the atmosphere around the charming harbour. The symbol of Antalya is the fluted minaret or Yivli Minare built by the Seljuks in the 13th century. There are plenty of interesting pieces in the Archaeological Museum, from the Palaeolithic Age right through to Ottoman times.

HISTORICAL LANDMARKS AND MOST POPULAR MUSEUMS IN ANTALYA REGION

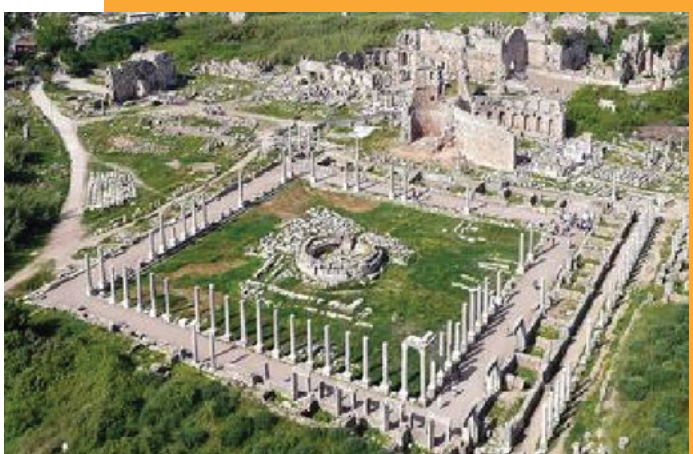

The Museum of Antalya

Founded in 1922 by Süleyman Fikri Erten, the Antalya Museum was initially housed in the Alaaddin Mosque and later the Yivli Minaret before moving to its current location in 1972. The museum is one of Turkey's most important, showcasing artifacts from the Hellenistic, Roman, Byzantine, and Turkish periods. It consists of 12 display halls, gardens, and open galleries, presenting the history of Antalya from prehistoric times to the modern era. The museum also features a “Children's Museum” designed to engage kids and provide a nursery for them while parents explore the exhibits.

Hadrian's Gate

Built in 130 AD to honor Emperor Hadrian's visit, this grand Roman archway is the best-preserved ancient structure in Antalya. Its marble columns and intricate carvings make it a striking entrance to the historic Kaleiçi.

Perge Ancient City

Perge is one of the most popular historical sites in the Antalya region, known for its ancient Greek and Roman ruins dating back to 1300 BC. The site includes a grand amphitheater that once held 15,000 spectators and is located near the city center. Perge was an important city during the Roman and Hittite periods, flourishing in the 2nd and 3rd centuries AD. It was famous for its architecture and sculpture, and many artifacts from Perge are displayed at the Antalya Museum.

Aspendos Theater

Just 50 km east of Antalya, Aspendos was an important centre of trade during Roman times. Today, the most impressive aspect of Aspendos is her stunning theatre, which was built in approx. 162 AD. It seats 15,000 and has been beautifully preserved. Each year it hosts the Aspendos Opera and Ballet Festival which takes place in June and July and gives you the opportunity to see performances of classics in a magnificent setting. The aqueduct, which supplied water to the city is also still relatively intact and is an impressive sight.
